ACTIVITY GUIDE

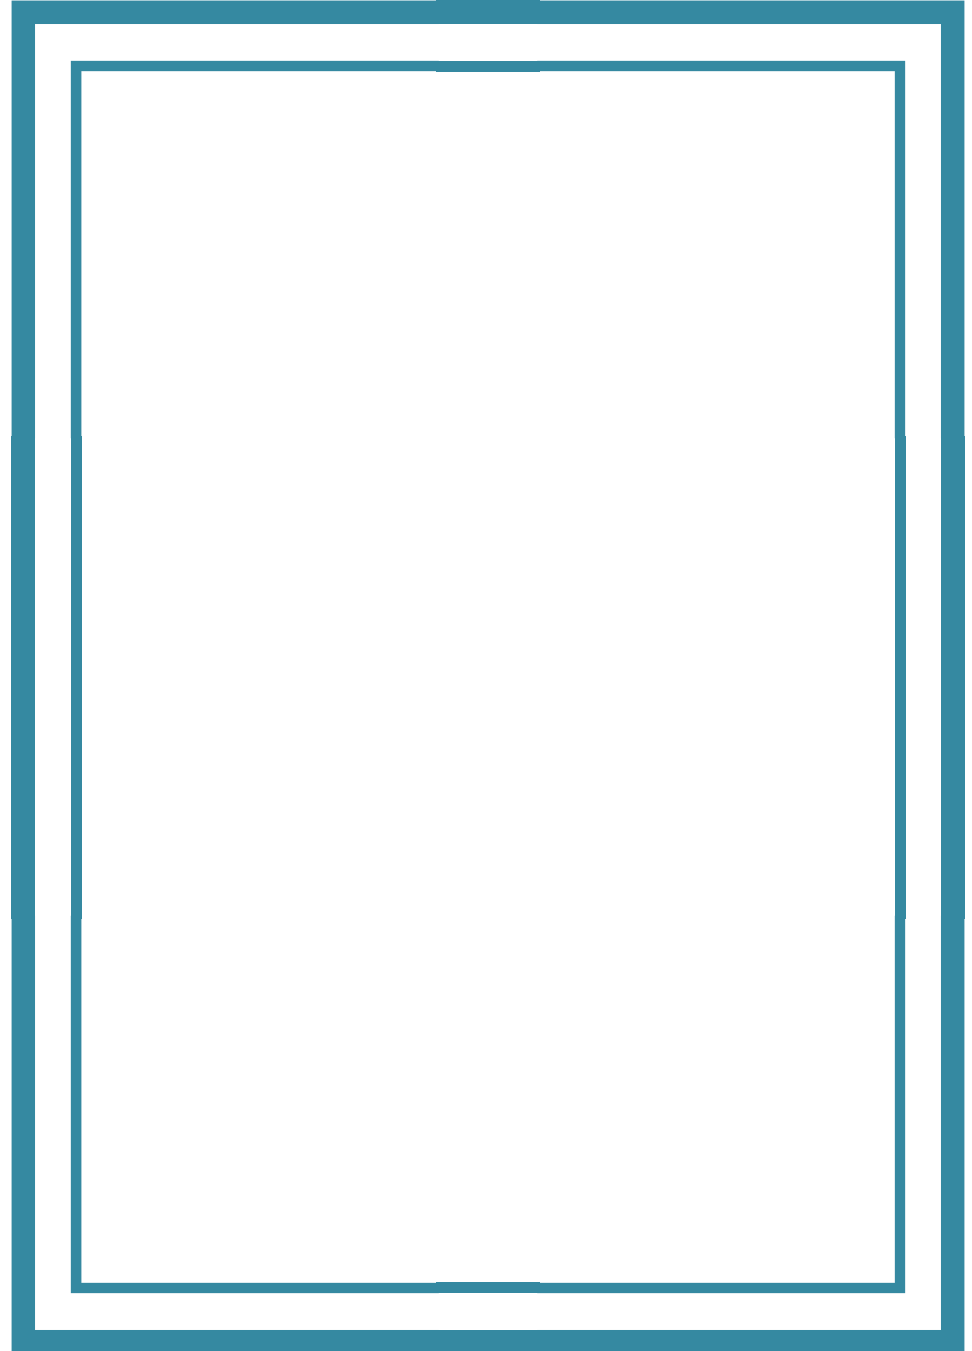

HELP US
COLOR IT IN!

Rick Shaefer was looking at old paintings for inspiration, but he decided to take the colors out.

We are relying on you to put them back in! Fill in the drawing with color.

Make your own design that is made up of repeated lines, squiggles, and swirls.

LINES, SQUIGGLES, & SWIRLS... OH MY!

Looking closely at Shaefer's work, you can see that his drawings are mostly made up of small repeated lines, squiggles, and swirls.

Look at how the lines make the man's back, and how the little squiggles make the trees.

IT'S LIKE A ZOO IN HERE!

Looking at Rick Shaefer's Refugee Trilogy, you can see many animals that he drew.

Looking at the three drawings, which animals can you find?

Circle the names of the animals that you see.

Crocodile Cat Hippopotamus

Octopus Dog Lizard Bear

Horse Lion Shark Zebra

Snake Elephant Tiger Giraffe

You can tell a lot from someone's facial expressions.

What do you think the people in the drawings are thinking or feeling?

Pick which words from the word box best fit each picture, and write it next to that person. How can you tell what they are feeling?

Happy	Sad	Grumpy	Bored	Angry	Scared
Lonely	Confused	Tired	Annoyed	Excited	Hungry
