NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HEALTH SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM, Due March 1

- Visit Marquette Prestigious Fellowships website to see this and other opportunities.

CONNECTING ON CAMPUS

It's easy to feel a bit disconnected from campus this year. If you're looking for some ways to get involved, check out these events:

"OUR ROOTS SAY THAT WE'RE SISTERS: AN IMAGE OF HOPE"

Friday, February 12 at 10:00 am

- Following a year of pandemic, talk with mural artist Mauricio Ramirez about the hope that art inspires. Co-hosted by the Haggerty Art Museum and the Faber Center. Register here.

RISE MENTOR APPLICATIONS, Due Sunday February 14

- Help first year, first-gen and students of color to succeed and thrive at Marquette. Contact Clara Dwyer to find out more.

AJCU HONORS CONSORTIUM VIRTUAL CONVERSATIONS: RACE AND HONORS EDUCATION, Thursday, February 18 6:00-7:30pm

- Join students, staff and faculty from all AJCU colleges and universities for a virtual discussion. For more information--or if you are interested in participating on the panel--contact Dr. Zurcher (amelia.zurcher@marquette.edu)

2021 BREWED IDEAS CHALLENGE, Due March 1

- The 707 Hub and Brady Corporation sponsor this MU version of Shark Tank, where students can present their innovative business and social ideas. Compete for seed money to help bring your plan into action. Students can also take part in an application bootcamp, but should register by Feb. 8. Click here for more information
