UPCOMING EVENTS & DEADLINES

Honors Straz LLC Lottery Application

Application Due: March 11, 2022

Lottery applications to live in the Honors LLC are open to any first-year in Honors, regardless of where you lived this year. You don't need to have a roommate in mind already to enter the lottery. To apply, please fill out the application form. Find out more about the Honors LLC here.

2022-2023 Psychology & Social Justice

Internship with Ed de St. Aubin

Application Due: March 14, 2022

Ed de St. Aubin's Psychology and Social Justice Internships offer an opportunity to become familiar with local Milwaukee organizations that focus on social justice advocacy while earning credits at MU. There are four different placement options: Decarceration/Reentry, Domestic Violence, LGBTQ+ Support/Advocacy, and Faith & Social Justice. Internships take place in both Fall and Spring semesters. Students do not need to be psychology majors to apply. To learn more about the internships and to apply, please follow the link to the application form.

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE MINOR PETITION

Honors student Ava Hart is writing a petition to establish an American Sign Language minor at Marquette. Currently MU only offers one years' worth of ASL classes. If you think MU could benefit from broadening its language options to support a more inclusive campus, please sign the petition and give the reason you signed. Sign the American Sign Language Minor Petition.

CLIMATE CHANGE QUESTIONNAIRE

Honors students in CORE 4929H are conducting a questionnaire about energy consumption and sustainability to support their class project. Please fill out the questionnaire to share your opinion about climate change and answer a couple of questions about going "green" on campus and future development of Marquette's sustainability!
