I will be the financial sponsor of the above-named student who intends to enroll at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, USA. I understand that the official university cost estimate for the 2024-2025 academic year of undergraduate studies is:

			Amount Provided by Financial Sponsor:
Tuition	$50,070
Housing & Food	$16,490
Personal/Miscellaneous	$6,820		$ _____ USD
Books	$720
Total:	$74,100

This estimate includes two terms of tuition and 9 months of living expenses. Living expenses include housing, food, clothing, books, 12 months of mandatory health insurance, mandatory student fees, some entertainment costs, and many personal items. Actual living expenses will vary. I also understand that these costs are expected to increase yearly.

I understand that the full course of study for a bachelor's degree usually requires four years, although some students need more than four years to complete this course of study. Given the above understandings, I guarantee that the amount indicated above will be available to this student promptly as his or her need for it arises.
