Professional Academic Experience

- Assistant Clinical Professor at Marquette University August 2021 - Current
CACREP Accredited

I am full time, clinical core faculty member in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program at Marquette University. Full-time faculty load is 30 credit hours of counseling graduate courses during a calendar year. However, I experience a course reduction due to my additional role as Online Program Coordinator (see additional responsibilities below). I prepare and teach courses per CACREP and Marquette College of Education standards and expectations, utilizing the D2L learning platform, and other assigned technologies. I am a member of the committee for Racial Justice. I assess, validate, and make recommendations for student learning and the OCMHC program, per the OCMHC Assessment Plan to ensure continuous quality improvement. I actively participate with my colleagues in faculty meetings, committee work, course development, course/program evaluation, and research. I also serve as designated faculty advisor for approximately 60 of our current students. I serve on the Counselor Education Committee and chair the CACREP Curriculum alignment committee.
- Director of Online Curriculum at Marquette University July 2024 – Current
CACREP Accredited

July of 2024, I was promoted from Online Program Coordinator to Director of Online Curriculum. In addition to my role as an Assistant Professor at Marquette University, I am responsible for the following administrative tasks: Maintain a repository of 12-week and 15-week (and any other duration) course shells for each course. Coordinate and make course shell modifications as needed, including vetted suggestions by faculty; Manage copying of content into course sites each semester; Collect course modification suggestions by faculty (adjunct, core) and organize their review in collaboration with the course designer; Develop and Maintain Orientation course for all admitted O-CMHC students; Orient new faculty to teaching online, including course format and assessment expectations; Coordinate course walkthroughs for all core and adjunct instructors each semester; Coordinate assignments of new course instructional design and existing course redesign to appropriate faculty in collaboration with the Department chair; Coordinate auditing new course instructional design and existing course redesign to appropriate faculty in collaboration with the Department Chair; Organize and store necessary departmental documentation pertinent to each course; Provide ongoing support throughout the 12-month year to all instructors (core, adjunct) teaching online courses.

• Online Program Coordinator at Marquette University

Mar. 2023 – July 2024

CACREP Accredited

In addition to my role as an Assistant Professor at Marquette University, I additionally serve as the Online Program Coordinator, where I am responsible for the following administrative tasks: Respond to all inquiries about the CMHC-O Program; Support and Maintain Partnership with Everspring (Online Program Manager), which includes attending all meetings with the Department Chair and communicating student updates/concerns to student support staff; Coordinate Admissions Processes including application review and interview processes for all CMHC-O student applicants; Coordinate all processes related to online curriculum development including: managing and maintaining online course shells, coordinating internal auditing of online courses and managing online course development; Coordinate and Document all CMHC-O Faculty Meetings; Develop and Manage CMHC-O Student Program Plans; Coordinate CMHC-O Orientation for current students; Coordinate and document all student review processes for academic concerns including forming remediation committees and documenting committee decisions; Coordinate and manage all CMHC-O student Academic Censure plans through the graduate school; Lead accreditation tasks (initial CACREP accreditation application, site visits, and program assessment for the CMHC-O program); Assist Practicum/Internship Coordinator regarding field placement processes; Lead CMHC-O student group advising meetings; Supervisor doctoral students teaching CMHC-O Clinical Courses; Support adjunct and core faculty teaching CMHC-O courses; Work with Director of Training to coordinate student comprehensive exam processes; Lead faculty searches for additional online faculty; Coordinate CMHC-O Adjunct Instructor Orientation; Coordinate mass communication/updates to all current CMHC-O students; Coordination communication of student issues/or concerns from CMHC-O Adjunct Instructors to Core faculty and Director of Training; Orient and Train New CMHC-O Faculty.

- Assistant Professor at Colorado Christian University

May 2019 – August 2021

- CACREP Accredited

I served as a full time, core faculty member at Colorado Christian University. Full-time faculty load is 30 credit hours of counseling graduate courses during a calendar year. I prepared and taught courses per CAGS standards and expectations, utilizing the Blackboard learning platform, and other assigned technologies. I assessed, validated, and made recommendations for student learning and the MCMHC program, per the MCMHC Assessment Plan to ensure continuous quality improvement. I actively participated with peers in MCMHC faculty meetings, committee work, course development, course/program evaluation, and ongoing work of the MCMHC program. I will also served as designated faculty mentor/advisor for assigned group of MCMHC students. I was a member of the Student Support Committee and served as chair for the ad hoc committee for Curriculum Development.
