COMMUNITY SERVICE

Princeton Review has ranked Marquette #1 for community service in 2024.

Guiding Perspective: As members of the Marquette University Committee on Research (COR), we have the privilege of seeing the impactful work done by faculty and students every year. We see how research and scholarship on campus advances the search for truth, produces novel discoveries, and enhances knowledge across many disciplines. We witness how Marquette's scholarship gives back, both locally and farther afield. Simply put, we see how Marquette's scholarship is central to our mission.

Wanting to share this perspective with the larger community, COR decided to provide a personalized anthology highlighting the importance of Marquette research by sharing reflections from scholars engaged in this work. The full document highlights stories across disciplines that illustrate how Marquette scholarship advances knowledge, provides a transformative education, and advances social good.

We thank all the faculty and students who contributed reflections, and everyone across campus working to facilitate Marquette scholarship. We feel these myriad efforts enhance our university's reputation for excellence, leadership, and innovation. We encourage everyone to continue to prioritize and invest in Marquette scholarship through their unique contributions and capabilities.
