History: St. Thomas of Canterbury is a non-Indian parish. However, from 1982-2011, the sacraments of American Indians active in the Anawim Center (later renamed the St. Kateri Center of Chicago) were recorded within the sacramental records of St. Thomas of Canterbury.

Holdings of Catholic-related records about Native Americans: Sacramental records of American Indians active in the Anawim Center, 1982-2011, copies of which are held by the St. Kateri Center.
