

Shamrock Club of Wisconsin~
John Gleeson & James Liddy
Memorial Scholarship

This application is available to anyone who will be pursuing studies of Irish culture, arts, dance or heritage. Applicants do not need to study in Ireland.

Applicant must have a high school diploma and be currently attending an institute of higher learning.

At least one scholarship for a maximum of $1000.00 will be awarded in 2025.

Additional information can be obtained by e-mailing Dan Schlitz - Scholarship Committee Chair at dan.schlitz@marquette.edu

This scholarship is named in honor of two scholars that dedicated their lives to the welfare of their students and encouraged them to flourish in their studies.

John Gleeson promoted language, history and theater.

James Liddy promoted poetry, Irish arts and writing.

Both left a legacy in our world and inspired many to seek an understanding in Irish culture, arts and heritage.
