

WORLD CHRISTIANITY CONFERENCE

Development and Indigenous Spiritualities

KEYNOTE

Lonergan, Decolonization, and First Nations Peoples: Reflections of an Insider on the Outside

John Dadosky, Ph.D.

OCTOBER 2 – 4, 2025

Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

The Marquette World Christianity conference invites papers and panel discussions on development and Indigenous spiritualities and on related topics, including:

- Indigenous cosmologies and care for the environment
- Indigenous spiritualities and Christianity
- Indigenous spiritualities, technology and modernities
- Indigenous spiritualities and justice and peace
- Indigenous spiritualities, development and dialogue
- Eschatology
- Soteriology
- Philosophy/politics

Proposals are due August 31, 2025.

Submit your proposals to joseph.ogbonnaya@marquette.edu
and xstiam@yahoo.com.

“Evangelization enlightens and unifies cultures inasmuch as it does not destroy or uproot them or replace them by some other alien culture.”

Response by Rev. Bernard Lonergan, S.J., to a pre-synodal query from Cardinal Franz König, President-Delegate of the Synod on Evangelization in the Modern World (1974)

Sponsored by the International Institute for Method in Theology

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY

BE THE DIFFERENCE.

WORLD CHRISTIANITY CONFERENCE